BY-LAWS OF

PHILIPPINE REALTY AND HOLDINGS CORPORATION

(As Amended on June 30, 2021)

ARTICLE I

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Annual Meetings. - The annual meeting of stockholders shall be held at the place where the principal office of the corporation is located during the month of June of each year at such time and date as may be determined by the Board of Directors. (Amended on June 23, 1992)

Special Meetings. - Special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the President of the corporation or by order of the Board of Directors whenever he or Section 2. they shall deem it necessary; and it shall be the duty of the President or of the Board to order or call such special meetings whenever the holders of record of not less than twenty (20) per centum of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation with voting privileges shall in writing so request.

Notices. - Notices of the time and place of annual or special meetings of the stockholders shall be given either personally or by mail or by electronic mail or Section 3. such other manner as the Securities and Exchange Commission shall allow under its guidelines, addressed to each stockholder of record entitled or not entitled to vote at the meeting at the address left by such stockholder with the Secretary of the Corporation, or at his last known address at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date set for such meeting. (as amended on August 20, 2020 and December 8, 1995)

Quorum. - A quorum for any meeting of the stockholders shall consist of a majority of the voting stock of the corporation, and a majority of such quorum shall decide any question at the meeting save and except in those matters where the Corporation Law requires the affirmative vote of a greater proportion.

Order of Business - The order of business at the annual meeting of the Section 5. stockholders shall be as follows:

- Proof of the required notice of the meeting;
- 2. Proof of the presence of the quorum;
- 3. Reading of the minutes of previous meeting and action taken thereon;
- Report of the Board of Directors;
- Unfinished business:
- 6. New Business;
- 7. Appointment of inspectors of election to serve until the close of the next annual meeting;
- 8. Election of directors for the ensuing year.

The order of business to be followed at any meeting may be changed by a vote of the majority in interest of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 6. Voting – At every stockholders' meeting, every stockholder entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock registered in his name in the books of the corporation; provided, however, that in the case of the election of directors, every stockholder entitled to vote shall be entitled to cast his vote, at his option, in accordance with the provision of the Corporation Law. Every stockholder entitled to vote may vote personally or by proxy or via remote modes of communication or in absentia, Provided, That the votes are received before the tally of votes is finished. The instrument authorizing a proxy to act shall be exhibited to the Secretary of the Corporation and inspectors of election and shall be lodged with the said Secretary. (Amended on August 20, 2020)

Section 7. The Board of Directors shall set a record date, prior to each meeting of the stockholders of the corporation, for the determination of the number of shares to which each stockholder is entitled to vote at such meeting. (Amended on May 31, 1988)

Section 8. Deadline of submission of proxy – Proxies shall be submitted to the Corporate Secretary at least two (2) business days prior to the date of the meeting of Stockholders or prior to the date set by the Board of Directors for the submission thereof. (Amended on May 22, 1990).

ARTICLE VI

SHARES AND THEIR TRANSFER

Issue and transfer - The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with law, provide for the issue and transfer of shares of stock of the corporation and shall prescribe the form of the certificate book. It shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary and sealed with the seal of the corporation. Provided, however, that if a call is duly made for the payment of the balance of the subscription and the said subscriber fails to pay the said balance when due, the unpaid subscription may be disposed of and sold by the corporation, thru its duly authorized officer, to any other person, or firm. Certificate will be issued for the portion of subscription paid. The certificate of stock shall be issued in consecutive order, and certificates shall be numbered in the order in which they are issued. Upon the stub of each certificate issued shall be entered the name of the person, firm, or corporation owning the stock represented by such certificate, the number of shares in respect to which the certificate is issued, and in the case of cancellation, the date thereof. Every certificate surrendered for exchange or transfer of stock shall be issued in exchange for cancelled certificate until the old certificate has been so cancelled or returned to its place in the stock book, except in the case provided for in Section 3 of this Articles.

Section 2. Stock and Transfer book – There shall be kept by the Secretary of the corporation a book to be known as the "Stock and transfer Book" containing the names, alphabetically arranged, of the stockholders of the corporation, showing their places of residence, the number of shares of stock hold by them, and the time when they respectively became the owners thereof and the amount paid by them thereon. Transfer of stock shall be made only on the transfer books of the corporation by the holder in person or by his duly authorized attorney on surrender of the duly endorsed certificate, representing the stock to be transferred. Every power of attorney or authority to transfer shall be in writing duly executed and filed with the corporation. (Amended on June 30, 1987)

Section 3. Lost or destruct or certificate – The Board of Directors may direct a new certificate of stock to be issued in the place of any certificate theretofore issued and alleged to have been lost or destroyed. The Board of Directors authorizing such issue of a new certificate may, in its discretion, require the owner of the stock or his legal representative, to furnish proof by affidavit or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors as to the ownership of the stock alleged to have been lost or destroyed, and the facts which supports its lost or destruction. The Board of Directors may also require him to give notice of such loss or destruction by publication or otherwise, as it may direct, and cause the delivery to the corporation of a bond with or without sureties in such sums as it may direct indemnifying the corporation from any claim that may be made against it by reason of the issue of such new certificate. The Board of Directors, however, may refuse, in its discretion, to issue any such new certificate except pursuant to legal proceedings made and provided for in such case.

Section 4. Compulsory Exchange of Certificate – When the Articles of Incorporation are amended in any way affecting the statements contained in the certificate for outstanding shares, or it becomes desirable for any reason to cancel any outstanding certificates for shares and issue new certificates therefore conforming to the rights of the holder, the Board of Directors may order any holder of outstanding certificates for shares to surrender and exchange them for new certificates within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Board of Directors.
